AGED WOMAN KILLED BY HIT AND RUN DRIVER

MRS. ANNA AZEVEDO IS VICTIM OF TRUCK NEAR CENTERVILLE

Tragedy Occurs In Front Of Washington Union High School

Apparently struck down by a hit and run driver, Mrs. Anna Azevedo, 80, of Centerville, was found bloody and mangled early Tuesday morning in front of the Washington high school. She died shortly afterward while in an ambulance enroute to the San Jose hospital.

No witnesses to the accident have been discovered by the authorities who are investigating the tragedy. It is assumed that Mrs. Azevedo was hit by some heavy machine as she was walking along the highway on her way to the Holy Ghost church, where she had the habit of daily attending early morning mass.

The woman was found lying alongside the road at about 6:45 a. m. by J. Z. Searle, of Monterey, who was driving by. He immediately notified Deputy Coroner Botelho, of Centerville, who with Traffic Officer Duffey, investigated.

Officials are of the opinion the victim was hit by a heavy truck, because of the mangled condition of her body from the hips down. The driver of the death machine kept on his way after striking the woman. No clue which might lead to his identification has been discovered by the officers.

A coroner's inquest was held Tuesday afternoon at San Jose.

NILES SCHOOL FIVE VICTORS IN TWO HOOP CONTESTS

Alvarado and Centerville Quintets Are Both Beaten

Opening the basketball season the Niles grammar school boys displayed their ability at the hoop game by administering a 23 to 4 defeat to Alvarado grammar school last Wednesday afternoon, and capturing a 5 to 2 contest from Centerville Tuesday afternoon.

Will Oliveria was the main cog in the Niles school attack against Alvarado. He hit the net for a total of eight points and also played a brilliant floor game. Cesari collected seven points of his team's total.

The following made up the Niles lineup: Fred Andrade (3), Ernest Bernard (5), Will Oliveria (8), Harry Cesari (7), John Cattaneo, and Charles Myrick.

The score indicates the closeness of the Centerville contest. Niles took the lead at the opening of the game on a foul shot, but at half time the count stood 2 all. Centerville gained a one point lead in the second half, and threatened to hold it, but Niles staged a scoring spurt in the closing minutes of play, tossing in three counters to take the game.

Fred Andrade contributed three points to Niles' total, while E. Bernard and W. Oliveria each scored one.

Yoshio was high for Centerville with two.

COW SWITCHES TAIL AND INJURES MILKER

Although milch cows are generally regarded as gentle and harmless animals, Tric Lundstrom, a milker employed on a dairy between Alvarado and Centerville, has opinions to the contrary as the result of a bovine inappropriately switching her tail Sunday night.

Lundstrom was engaged in the task of extracting rich liquid from the animal when she suddenly switched her tail, hitting him in the eye causing a painful and serious injury.

After the blow from the cow's tail, Lundstrom lost his balance and toppled from his stool. Striving to catch himself to avoid the fall, he sustained a badly sprained wrist. The milker was brought to Centerville, where medical examination revealed that he may lost the sight of his eye.

MEXICAN FAMILIES TREK FROM ALVARADO AS RESULT OF RAIDS

Nine Arrested Recently On Charges of Hog Stealing

Apparently harboring the opinion that the atmosphere of Alvarado is becoming too "unhealthy," several Mexican families are reported to have left that place during the past week.

A recent raid by Alameda and Santa Clara county authorities which is rumored to have cleaned up the remnants of the old "Little Tijuana" gang, and a report that another raid is being planned by federal authorities to round up aliens who are in this country without passports is believed to be the reason for the Mexican migration.

Information obtained by the Muller Detective agency, which maintains a patrol system in several communities in southern Alameda county, resulted in the recent raid in which nine Mexicans were arrested by the Santa Clara and Alameda county officers. The men were charged with having stolen hogs from ranchers in Santa Clara county and butchered them near their home.

The hogs were alleged to have been stolen from Walter Johnson, an ex-service man, who had stocked his ranch with porkers a few months ago by cashing his adjustment compensation certificate.

The arrested men were lodged in the San Jose jail, and were arraigned there this week.

NECESSITY FOR NILES LIBRARY SUPPORT IS STRESSED AT MEETING

"JUMPING" JOE VICTOR IN CLOSE NILES TITLE GO

"Jumping" Joe Blacow is again golfing champion! Taking the measure of his closest competitor, Jack Williamson, who had administered two beatings to the title holder during the past two weeks, Joe regained possession of the golf crown by the close margin of two strokes in a thirty-six hole match played Sunday at the Monterey Golf and Country Club.

"Curly" Dini, erstwhile holder of Niles niblick wielding laurels, and until Sunday, vehement and confident claimant to recapturing the crown, was utterly silenced in Sunday's contest when he underwent a convincing trouncing at the hands of Williamson and Blacow. So complete and crushing was the meat cutter's rout, that he dropped out of the match after the fifth green of the second eighteen holes had been reached.

Charley Coyle, another Niles follower of the fairways and qualified challenger to the crown, was not able to be present at Sunday's game, so was the field narrowed down to three.

Evenness of play between Williamson and Blacow throughout the thirty-six holes was the featuring note in Sunday's match. At no time were the two separated by any larger margin than three strokes, and it was not until the final green had been passed, that victory was assured for "Jumping" Joe.

Honors were fairly even at the outset, but as the match grew older, Williamson and Blacow began to draw away from Dini. At the conclusion of the first eighteen holes, Blacow led the field with the aggregate count of ninety-seven, while Dini had a total of 105.

The meat cutter, however, did not lose courage at this disadvantage, but entered the second eighteen with strong and confident expectation of overcoming the handicap. But much to his consternation and dismay it was at this stage that he faded out of the picture as a possibility to take the title. Taking a nine on the first, seven on the second, nine on the third, eight on the fourth, and nine on the fifth, Dini put away his clubs in disgust and left Williamson and Blacow to battle for honors.

The most sparkling play of the day came on the thirteenth green of the second eighteen, which is considered the most difficult hole on the course, when Williamson drove across two gullies to land on the green on two and take the hole with a par four. Williamson gained the lead at this point and was three up on "Jumping" Joe for the second eighteen.

The match grew tense as the players neared the finish, with both displaying brilliant form in their drives and second shots. Williamson took the sixteenth hole with a par four, while Blacow turned in a six count, which still left the former two up on his rival. On the seventeenth, however, Blacow gained a stroke, and they both parred the eighteenth to make the aggregate

Reverend Brinkmyer Calls For Payment of Dues For New Year

Appealing for the united support of the community in regard to the Niles Memorial library, Rev. E. G. Brinkmyer, newly elected secretary of the library association, appeared before the Niles Chamber of Commerce at their Tuesday meeting to warmly defend the maintenance of this asset to Niles.

Stressing the importance of this institution as a wholesome gathering place for the youth of the community as well as serving as a supplementary aid to their school work, Reverend Brinkmyer expressed the opinion that all those who use the library should assist in meeting the small yearly expenses of keeping it up.

According to the new treasurer, the yearly budget does not amount to more than $50, which includes insurance on the building, paying the janitor and any other minor expenses that arise. The county cannot pay these expenses because the library belongs to Niles and not to the county, although most of the books are obtained from that source. Reverend Brinkmyer especially urged all members of the library association to pay their dues for 1932, which amount to $2.00 a year. At present there are only about twelve members in the association, thus it is obvious more are needed.

Numbering of Niles houses began Tuesday it was announced at the meeting. Hansen Lumber Company received the honor of displaying the first number on the front of its building on Main street.

The man employed to solicit the consent of the property owners to having the numbers placed is now engaged in making these placements where they are desired.

Further plans for the observance of the two hundredth anniversary of the birth of George Washington were announced at Tuesday's gathering. It was decided the chamber will meet at the Niles grammar school at noon Tuesday, February 28, for their dinner, after which they will attend a program presented by grammar school pupils in the auditorium. The program is scheduled to begin promptly at 12:30 noon, in order to allow everyone to attend before returning to their place of business. Principal E. D. Bristow urged a large attendance for the program.

O. W. Ebricht was appointed chairman to arrange for next week's meeting.

Niles Firemen To Attend County Meet

Friends Pay High Tribute to Dr. Enos

A prominent medical authority of Oakland gave the following very complimentary words recently in commencing on the work of Dr. M. M. Enos of St. Anthony's Hospital, 1537 Jackson street, Oakland.

"It is an axiom that it takes many years for a man to arrive at the head of a profession. Years of toil and striving are involved, a powerful will is needed and one must be prepared, after success comes to him, to withstand the envy and jealousy which is always the price of leadership.

"Dr. M. M. Enos, who has served his profession faithfully and unselfishly, is recognized as one of the most skilled physicians and surgeons in Oakland and deservedly earned this high place.

"His great work has endeared him to thousands. Not only is he a man of the highest skill and training, having served three years as professor of surgery in the early part of this century in the National University of Chicago (one of the large Oakland newspapers having devoted considerable space to this achievement at the time), but in addition to his training as a physician and surgeon, he is also a lover of humanity.

"There are many instances of this kind trait. To speak of only two, I can recite those of two children who at separate times were treated for afflictions by Dr. Enos where other physicians had given up as hopeless. This kindly doctor administered to these young sufferers, keeping them in his hospital without cost, over a period of years, finally restoring them to complete health.

"These are some of the reasons why he stands at the very head of his profession of mercy and is recognized far beyond the boundaries of Oakland as a physician and humanitarian. In fact, he has taken his place as one of the leading physicians of the west, because of the thousands of lives he has saved through his great knowledge of surgery and the healing science. It is no wonder that these men and women who owe their lives to this humanitarian wish him many more years to carry on his mission of mercy.

"Then, too, there are numbers of patients of this unselfish man who had been restored to health, who were given hospital and nursing care, without a cent of cost. Dr. Enos has kept no record of all these cases. He has been too busy to give them more than a thought. However, it is definitely known that these services if they had been paid for, would total several hundred thousand dollars. But he never turned away a person needing him. All that he saw was a patient in need of help and he, remembering his high calling, gave him aid.

"It is not difficult to picture the admiration these grateful persons restored to health through his kind offices have for Dr. Enos. They realize, as do the better placed patients, who are in a position to pay, that he is needed in Oakland and hope that he will keep his place in the forefront of his profession for many years to come."—Adv.

Restless CHILDREN

CHILDREN will fret, often for no apparent reason. But there's always Castoria! Harmless as the recipe on the wrapper, mild and bland as it tastes. But its gentle action soothes a youngster more surely than a more powerful medicine.

That's the beauty of this special children's remedy! It may be given the tiniest infant—as often as there is need. In cases of colic, diarrhea or similar disturbance, it is invaluable. A coated tongue calls for just a few drops to ward off constipation; so does any suggestion of bad breath. Whenever children don't eat well, don't rest well, or have any little upset—this pure vegetable preparation is usually all that's needed.

B CAGERS DEFEAT EMERYVILLE FIVE BY ELEVEN POINTS

Game Played at Pleasanton On January Fifteen

Pleasanton B cagers defeated the Emeryville five in a well-played game at the Amador gym January 15 by a score of twenty to nine.

The Dons, during the first few minutes of play, ran up a safe lead on their opponents. Coach Patterson then put in a few substitutes to give them an opportunity to play in the game. They allowed the Emeryville boys to score a few baskets, so that at the end of the half the score stood eleven to five in favor of Pleasanton.

In the second half the Don first string went back into the game and ran up another nine points to Emeryville's four. During the last quarter the visiting team managed to score a few more points, but at the end of the game they were still trailing the Dons by eleven points. Captain Muggs George was high point man for the Amador squad with eight points to his credit. Fred Dutra and Manuel Safrano came next with four each, and John Haas and Froggy Bottini followed them with two apiece.

John Haas played a fine, fast game for the Dons, but was put out on four personal fouls. Russel Anderson, a former C team player, will play with the B team in the future. Other substitutes are Gibson, Marino, and Perry.

YEARS MAY COME AND GO BUT THIS STOVE BURNS ON

Additional light into the eventful life of the little old coal stove which so merrily warms the interior of Judge J. A. Silva's office in the Niles justice court and also is so strongly entrenched in the judge's affections was cast this week by J. D. Ferry, Niles barber, who was owner of the heater for a number of years. Like Judge Silva, Ferry ardently vouches for the ability of this veteran of many fires to radiate warmth and cheer when nourished by small lumps of coal. In recounting how he gained possession of the heat contrivance, Ferry adds another interesting chapter to the narrative published in the Register last week.

The stove was manufactured in Newark long years ago. Approximately thirty-five years have passed by since it first began to function so usefully for Judge Silva, and after the judge had sold his barber shop in Niles, the stove continued to be used by the new owner. However, there came a time when the owner of the stove thought it had outlived its usefulness, so it was discarded.

It is at this stage that Ferry comes onto the scene and plays the significant role which enables the heat provider to burn so cheerily today in the Niles justice court. Ferry in need of a stove questioned Frank Silveria, then the owner of the barber shop where the heater had so long provided comfort to many customers, as to its whereabouts. That was in the winter of 1909.

Upon being informed the stove had been cast into a junk heap back of Silveria's home, Ferry immediately proceeded to the scene of the heater's internment and rescued it from what came near being the close of a useful career long before its time. One of the legs was missing and after a long and diligent search in the rubbish heap, the missing part was located by Ferry, who restored the stove into its own. Measured in terms of actual cash, the stove commanded but a small sum, $1.50 being the amount involved in the transaction which changed its ownership from Silveria to Ferry.

As was related last week, the heater as a warmth dispenser reigned supreme in Ferry's barber shop until three years ago. Several grates succumbed to the many fires which burned in the old stove during its faithful service under Ferry, but the main body stood up successfully against all harsh ravages of time.

Convincing testimony to the heater's power to generate warmth is offered in Ferry's statement that he always kept two dampers in use on the stove. Upon being questioned on many occasions as to the reason for this fact, the barber would insistingly reply "to keep the stove from going up the chimney."

When the heater was given to the Niles Boy Scout troop three years ago to make way for a better appearing stove, it was with sighs, of regret that Ferry saw it leave the spot where it had served him efficiently and uncomplainingly for so many years. It was like the passing of a dear old friend upon whom one could always rely.

That its financial value increased with its year seemed apparent when Judge Silva regained possession of the stove from the Boy Scouts for the sum of $2.00, an increase of fifty cents over the price Ferry had paid over twenty years ago. But the judge feels he more than received his money's worth, and is satisfied that he is immune from all the rigors of rainy or bleak weather, now that he is safely protected by his old companion of thirty-five years ago.

FOURTH SERMON ON MOUNT TO BE GIVEN SUNDAY

Sunday, January 31, at the Irvington Community church, the pastor will present the fourth sermon in the series on the Sermon on the Mount. Topic for Sunday is "How Jesus fulfilled the law of truth."—Mat. 5:33-34. The questions to be answered are: What great underlying principle was Jesus getting at when he said: "Swear not at all"? Do Jesus' words leave any loophole to justify twisted truth in business, politics, home or community relationships? Is there any connection between untruthfulness and depression? Is the one-price system found in any country where Christianity has not gone? When Jesus said, "I am the Truth", did he not teach plainly that truth is not a relationship or a principle but an aspect of God's personality? Do these words not make it plain that God is not Divine principle but Divine personality? Is it "understanding of truth" or an experience of Christ as truth made personal which makes men free from fear, sin and pain? The young people's choir gave a good account of themselves last Sunday and have agreed to appear again. Lent is not far away. Begin now to get the church-going habit. Join our increasing attendance and share the joy of building a congregation.

WASHINGTON HIGH A HOOPERS WIN TWO LEAGUE CONTESTS

VAUDEVILLE CAST READY TO AMUSE AUDIENCE TONIGHT

Washington High School Auditorium to Be Scene of Show

With final rehearsal held last night and the entire cast prepared to render one of the most entertaining amateur shows ever produced in Washington township, the stage is set for drawing back the curtain on the opening act of the Washington Vodvil tonight at the Washington Union high school auditorium. The show also will be held tomorrow night (Friday).

After weeks of intensive practice under the direction of Miss Aubrey Nicely, high school dramatics coach, and other members of the high school faculty, the first vaudeville show ever produced by the high school students promises to provide a wealth of entertainment for all those who attend on either night of the presentation.

A wide variety of capable talent has been selected from the high school student body to appear in this program, which is being presented to raise funds for the publishing of the Washingtonian, senior class year book.

Among the highlights listed for the evening are individual stunts by various nationalities. A Japanese stunt, comprised of two parts, is expected to draw the acclaim of the audience. Masuko Hirabayashi will lead a group of three girls in a Japanese dancing number in which all the color of fascinating Japan will be displayed. Six Japanese boys led by Harry Nakagawara will engage in orthodox Nipponese fencing bouts, which promises to hold the spectators breathless from start to finish.

Fourteen negro minstrels will appear on the stage at various intervals to croon and chant old negro favorites and exchange clever bits of repartee. J. V. Gould, of the high school faculty, will take the part of interlocutor, while the end men are Warren Martin, Gordon Pond, Albert Vasconcellos, and Manuel Renia, all of whom can be trusted to perform with ability.

Cunning magicians with powers of performing startling feats of legerdemain will be on hand to thrill and grip the audiences. Other acts which border on the shadow of the mystical world such as mind reading, etc., also will be featured. The chief magicians are Karl Nordvik and Frank Dusterberry, Jr., both of whom are thoroughly versed in the dark art of necromancy and wizardry.

In addition to all the above mentioned attractions, there will be a mystery woman to stimulate the curiosity and interest of the crowds to the very end, when her identity will be revealed.

Appropriate stage lighting effects have been prepared with painstaking care to provide all the environment for the production.

Musical hits by the best of the high school student body's musical talent are among other features on the program for the two evenings.

B Quintet Break Even In Emeryville and Foothill Tilts

Washington Union high school's A basket cagers advanced a step in southern Alameda county basketball standing when they annexed two contests during the last week. Tuesday night, Coach Regl's athletes took the measure of Foothills by the close score of 25 to 23 in a fast contest played at the Washington high gym, while Friday night they defeated Emeryville 22 to 14.

The Washington B hoopers broke even in two games played with the same schools, dropping a bitterly fought struggle to Emeryville Friday night, 16 to 15, and coming through with an easy win from Foothills Tuesday night by a 27 to 19 count.

The Foothills A game was a thriller from the opening whistle, with both quintets fighting fiercely until the finish. Fudenna played outstanding ball for the Cornhuskers, gathering a total of twelve counters to capture high point honors. He was followed by Trout with eight to his credit.

Washington line-up and scoring follows: Trout (8), Fudenna (12), Rathbone, Rose, forwards; Rodriguez (2), center; Coley and Salvadorini (3), guards.

The outcome of the B contest against Foothills was never in doubt, with the Cornhuskers taking an early lead and increasing it as the game progressed. H. Sekigahama was back in his usual form and led his teammates with nine tallies. The following men saw action for Washington: Laybourne, Foehr, Phippen, Kitashimu, Nakagawara, H. Sekigahama, Masuda, Koga, Tominatsu and Reina.

EMERYVILLE GAME

Glen Trout led his teammates in the victory over Emeryville, tossing in nine points during the game. The Cornhuskers led from the start and at half time held a 7 to 4 advantage.

Washington lineup and scoring follows: Trout (9), Rose (1), J. Fudenna (5), Rathbone (3), forwards; J. Rodriguez (2), Fontes, center; Coley, Fuller, Salvadorini (5), Maderos, guards.

The B tilt was a heart-breaking struggle for either team to have lost. At no stage during the game was the margin larger than one or two advantage for either quintet. The first half ended 10-9 in Emeryville's favor, and although the Cornhuskers fought hard they were never able to overcome the disadvantage.

The following played for Washington: H. Sekigahama (7), Masuda, Foehr, Laybourne (2), T. Kitashimu, E. Phippen, M. Koga, H. Nakagawara (3), Hirabayashi (1), and T. Tominatsu.

Emergency Road Work for Most Deserving Only

Requirements for Applicants Announced by Miss Grace Gue

That a misunderstanding apparently exists regarding the employment of men on the county roads under the emergency program instituted by the Alameda County Board of Supervisors a month ago, is the statement of Miss Grace Gue, of Pleasanton, worker for the Southern Alameda County Welfare Board.

Money being used for the road work, explains Miss Gue, was taken from the county relief funds and placed in the road fund in order to furnish employment for family men who, without this work, would be county charges.

"In many cases," says Miss Gue, "relief agencies have been furnishing grocery orders, paying rent, or furnishing medical services for families whose income has been cut off. Under the road employment plan it is the intention of the supervisors to give men work instead of charity."

In order to become employed on the roads the following requirements must be met:

1. The applicant must be a citizen of the United States, a resident of California for at least three years, and a resident of Alameda county for at least one year.
2. Only men with families or single men whose earnings are entirely used to support families are employed.
3. Employment is not offered to those who have property, money, credit, or any other means of support; but only to those who might otherwise become public charges.

Men who fall within these classifications and who wish to work on the county roads may file their applications with Miss Gue at the Pleasanton Health Center at 11:30 a. m. every Tuesday and Thursday. The names are forwarded to the Board of Supervisors, where they are drawn once a week. Under the present plan each eligible man is given six days' work each month. The pay is four dollars a day.

PLEASANTON FARM HOME DEPARTMENT HAS WHIST PARTY

Members Are Entertained by Team Captains as Result of Membership Drive

Pleasanton Farm Home Department held an interesting meeting at the home of Mrs. Charles Florio January 14.

There were fifty-three members present who enjoyed whist while others made candy.

The project for the meeting was candy making. Mrs. Marietta Holman, of Hayward, home demonstration agent, was present.

Mrs. Florio and Mrs. Ollie Page were the hostesses for the afternoon as the result of a membership drive held a month ago.

According to the agreement between the two, who were the captains of the two teams competing in the drive, the winning team was to entertain the losers; but, as the contest was a tie, the two captains decided they would entertain together.

There were nine tables of cards. Those who won honors in whist were Mrs. Fred Hall, Mrs. H. Johnson, of Sunol, and Mrs. Charles Vizzolini.

In appreciation of the work done by the two captains during the campaign, Mrs. B. F. Newton, past chairman of the department, presented Mrs. Page and Mrs. Florio each with a picture of a garden scene.

The candy which was made at the last meeting was given to the men at the Livermore Veterans' hospital Sunday.

Clothes of Character

SUCCESSFUL business men no longer consider hand-tailoring an unnecessary or expensive refinement. Compare the fine differences in appearance and fit of suits made definitely for YOU and not to the mold of a million others. There's character to tailored clothes—personality, comfort, lasting newness, and wearability. Well tailored clothes have style and distinction—successful men have learned to insist upon, for they realize it costs no more. A suit here will cost as little as you paid for a ready-made last year—it will render twice the pleasure.

All Alice Needed Was a Firm Hand

By CLARISSA MACKIE

"OF COURSE, if I did not have all the money I wanted I wouldn't dream of playing with flying machines," Alice Wayne thought as she prepared to enter the little machine built for her own pleasure. She smiled a last goodbye to the man who had her machine in charge as she rose from the ground. Little by little she ascended, bathed in moonlight, flooded with the fresh cold air of the upper planes.

"All my troubles are below," she thought with a bitter little laugh. Of course, she knew that her engagement to Charlie Blake was ended—had she not broken it herself yesterday. Still, he was not the only man in the world. She hoped that he would go to England on the next boat—that would be sailing today. So enthralled had she become in her problem that she was not aware where she had wandered when suddenly she heard an odd noise above the roar of the engine. She turned her head.

Another machine was behind her. Was the driver blind that he could not perceive her machine? Could she drop? Dared she?

Ignorance dares anything. In an instant after she touched that small lever, the machine was volplaning toward the earth. A sudden faintness came over Alice Wayne. She could not find the same small lever to pull it forward to resume her even flying!

Suddenly she faltered—she did not feel it when the plane crashed among the branches of a huge, wide-spreading oak tree, and stayed there. She did not hear the voice of Charles Blake calling out to his servants as he came out to view the disaster.

"What is it, James?" demanded Blake hurriedly.

"Flying machine, sir," called the butler. "Somebody in here—unconscious, I guess."

"Better get him down—or do you want help?"

"He's a little fellow, sir, but we'll have to have a ladder."

They shouted for a ladder, and pretty soon a great stout ladder crashed through the branches and found a brace against a branch. "I'll take him down," said Blake, and picking up the little form was astonished at its lightness. He said nothing, however, and when he reached the ground, called to his housekeeper, and still carrying his unconscious burden, bore it into an unused bedroom.

"This young fellow lost his senses," Mrs. Carey, he said. "Can't you do something for him while I telephone for the doctor?"

"Good gracious, Mr. Blake," cried the woman, "it's a girl!"

"Yes," said Charlie Blake in a queer strangled voice. "It is a girl—one that I know, too. Mrs. Carey, can we keep this a secret from the servants?"

"I will try, sir."

"It will be difficult for you, Mrs. Carey, to take care of her alone."

Mrs. Carey laughed softly. "Not at all, Mr. Blake—not at all—I hope you won't let this accident stop you from your trip to Europe."

"It may—please do not mention my name just yet, to this girl."

An hour later, Doctor Smith shook Mr. Blake by the hand, assured him that the patient was resting quietly.

Charles Blake stood there a long time after the doctor went. He was wondering about Alice—what had she been doing in a plane at night? Just because he had told her yesterday that he did not approve of airplanes for women, she had broken their engagement.

It was three o'clock when he telephoned to her family, and it was four o'clock when the Wayne automobile dashed up the avenue, and Alice's parents arrived at his house.

"She's sleeping like a top now," said Charles, to Alice's anxious mother, "but if you will go up there, Mrs. Carey will find a couch for you."

In the library he talked with Mr. Wayne for an hour. "She's a kid, Alice is," said her father emphatically. "She will never have an airplane again—what she needs is to be taken hold of and told what to do. Can you do that?"

"Rather," said Blake quietly. "Then she's yours for keeps."

The next morning they all sat in her room while Alice ate her breakfast. On the third finger was Blake's diamond ring.

"As for the airplane," said Mr. Wayne briskly, "I will send somebody over from the air-drome to get it down—it's a mess of junk."

"Why, daddy, I am sure it could be mended," broke in Alice, "and Charles and I have thought of honeymooning in it, haven't we?" She turned to Blake, who hesitated for an instant, then spoke firmly.

"To tell the truth, we haven't mentioned the plane, Mr. Wayne, and for my part, I'll say that my wife will never ride in one again, eh, Alice?"

Alice stared amazed at the man she loved, at the firm faces of her parents.

"No, Charles," she said in a very "small" voice.

Amador Cagers Beat Emeryville in League Game

Sixteen to Thirteen Score Gives Victory to Pleasanton Team

Pleasanton Varsity defeated the Emeryville five in a game played at the Amador gym last Friday afternoon. It was Amador's second league tussle and was won with a score of sixteen to thirteen.

The game was close, with first one team leading and then the other. It was impossible to decide who would win until the last minute of play when Cole made a close shot from under the basket and gave the Dons a one-point lead. In the last half minute of play, a long field shot by Miller cinched the game for the Pleasanton team.

The score was unusually small in view of the opportunities which each team had to score. The score at the end of the first quarter was one to nothing in favor of Emeryville. During the second quarter, the Dons managed to score two baskets and the half ended four to one in their favor.

During the third period Emeryville managed to gain a one point lead on the Dons, so the score stood eight to seven at the beginning of the last quarter. Both teams battled evenly during that period, and Emeryville led by one point with one minute to play.

It was at this point that Cole

COUNTY HOSPITAL DIRECTOR TALKS TO LIONS' CLUB

Pleasanton Club Amused By Sleight-of-Hand Expert

That the taxpayers of Alameda county have reason to feel proud of its hospitals, was the statement made at a meeting of the Pleasanton Lions club last week by Dr. W. A. Black, medical director of the Alameda county hospitals.

Dr. Black, in an extremely interesting talk, explained the workings of the Arroyo Sanatorium, the Del Valle Preventorium, the Fairmont hospital, and the Highland hospital; and gave detailed explanation of the kinds of cases cared for in each institution.

He showed how the county cared for the acutely ill at the Highland, how the convalescent and other cases were cared for at the Fairmont, the tubercular at the Arroyo, and the pre-disposed tubercular children at Del Valle.

Dr. Black was introduced by Justice of the Peace Charles A. Gale, of Pleasanton, who is a member of the county institutions commissions.

Following Dr. Black's talk, William Letham, of San Mateo, entertained the Lions with a number of sleight of hand tricks.

Pleasanton Operetta To Be Presented Early In Spring

Principals for the "Count and the Co-Ed", the operetta to be presented by Amador high school students, of Pleasanton, this spring were announced last week by Director Harry Tripp of that school.

Great enthusiasm has been shown toward the operetta by the students according to Tripp's announcement. Everyone participating has been laboring with much assiduity over vocal selections and dance steps.

For some time the students have been eagerly awaiting the announcement of the cast of principals in the operetta. Last week the bulletin board was the center of attraction, as it contained a list of those chosen for the parts.

Birdie Boggs, a sweet and simple freshman girl, Enrica Adams; Amy Arnold, a bright and efficient junior, Pauline Enos; Dolly McSpadden, daughter of the college president, Beverly Rosa; Miss Agatha Lockstep, house mother at a girls' dormitory, Beatrice Clark; Dr. Cicero McSpadden, president of Marden College, John Gariboldi; Mrs. McSpadden, his wife, Josie Bottini; Mark Watson, the college yell leader, Frank Marino; Hamilton Hunter, leader of the glee club, Bill Gibson; Willie (Sleepy) Carter, a freshman, Manuel Saferno; Marjorie Blackwood, the belle of the campus, Mildred Enos; Dan Flanagan, a smart young motor cop, Joe Miller; Kenneth (Snootie) Andrews, the glee club comedian, Mugga George.

Cadenazzi was arrested two weeks ago by Pleasanton Chief of Police William T. Davis. He claimed he was an ex-service man and entitled to a free license. When Cadenazzi produced evidence in court to support his claims, Judge Gale dismissed the charge against him with the warning to procure a license before peddling in the future.

15 ON THIRD PERIOD HONOR ROLL FOR PLEASANTON HIGH

Three Basketball Stars Are Barred From Teams for Poor Grades

Honor students at the end of the third marking period at the Amador high school, Pleasanton, totalled fifteen, a figure which shows a slight increase over the number on the roll for the previous marking period.

The number of students receiving F grades was only twenty-three as compared with thirty-five for the last marking period.

The period just finished proved to be one of the best in the first half of the school year. Its only drawback was the fact that the basketball teams will suffer the loss of three of their first string players, because they received a failing grade in two or more of their subjects.

The senior class led the school with six honor students; the freshman followed with four; the sophomores were third with three; and the juniors had two.

The best record made during the last six weeks period was held by Miss Blaire Logue, who had twenty honor points to her credit.

The honor roll by classes follows:

Freshmen — Dorothy Kolln, Marjorie and Eldora Perry, Helen Rivolta.

Sophomores — Merel Kamp, Linda Linsler, Melva Madsen.

Juniors — Margaret Burns, Jane Robb.

Seniors — Beatrice Clark, William Clark, Constance Campagna, John Gariboldi, Blaire Logue, Catherine Nolan.

PHIL D. SWING CONFIDENT OF SENATE SEAT

Congressman Pays Visit to Publisher in Modesto on Saturday

RETURNS EAST SOON

Confidence Expressed by Legislator on Senate Candidacy

Expressing confidence in his election to the senate seat now held by Sam Shortridge in the coming November elections and his intention of returning to Washington within a few days, Congressman Phil D. Swing, paid Norman H. Parks, publisher, a visit at his office in the Modesto Tribune building, Modesto, Saturday.

Congressman Swing's visit was both a personal call and in the interest of his candidacy for the senate seat. Mr. Parks and Congressman Swing have long been personal friends, dating back to the days of the Boulder Dam fight in the Imperial Valley. Mr. Parks owned several papers in the valley and materially aided in the fight for the final passage of the Swing-Johnson Boulder Dam bill, which was fought tooth and nail by Harry Chandler, publisher of the Los Angeles Times, and owner of millions of acres of land in Baja California.

While Congressman Swing sought to procure a definite stand from Mr. Parks favorable to his candidacy, the publisher did not commit himself, although he is favorable to several of the congressman's ideals and objects for which he stands at present.

Congressman Swing, who is from San Diego, was in Central California on a speaking tour, having delivered an address in Merced on Friday, stopping over in Modesto long enough to pay several calls. He plans to return to Southern California before again leaving for Washington.

In connection with the unemployment situation in his home state the congressman declared, "In California the unemployment problem cannot be looked upon as a local state situation. The unemployed of other states have been pouring across our boundaries at the rate of 1,000 a day. These men are citizens of the United States government as well as of other states and for that reason we cannot stop them from entering California."

In solving the unemployment problem, Congressman Swing is heartily in favor of a huge federal bond issue to provide the necessary funds for public works as the only suitable and workable way out.

"Since the unemployed from other states entering California must be taken care of," Congressman Swing continued, "the federal government owes California an obligation to assist and should do so by expanding its public works program of building."

In the congressman's opinion there is only one solution and that is a real American method—work. He said, "The only antidote to unemployment is employment. The American people must work themselves out of this depression. The federal government is apparently about the only source to whom the people can entrust their money."

"By a bond issue for needed public construction the government can call money out of hiding and put it into circulation. There is no question of waste involved in this proposal."

At least three candidates will enter the race for the senate post. To date those who have announced their candidacy in addition to Swing are the present incumbent, Shortridge, and Joe E. Crail, also a California congressman.

SOUR STOMACH

JUST a tasteless dose of Phillips' Milk of Magnesia in water. That is an alkali, effective yet harmless. It has been the standard antacid for 50 years. One spoonful will neutralize at once many times its volume in acid. It's the right way, the quick, pleasant and efficient way to kill all the excess acid. The stomach becomes sweet, the pain departs. You are happy again in five minutes.

Don't depend on crude methods. Employ the way yet evolved in all the years of searching. That is Phillips' Milk of Magnesia. Be sure to get the genuine.

"Milk of Magnesia" has been the U. S. Registered Trade Mark of the Charles H. Phillips Chemical Company and its predecessor Charles H. Phillips since 1875.
